1. In markdown, describe KNN in your own words.

2. Using the KNN example from class, write a function that finds the optimal value for k. You should iterate over a range of values and return the k and the score when the accuracy score is maximized. Be sure to only use odd values.